Series of Presentations: Cultural Studies between Yesterday and Tomorrow

“Das vom Menschen Gemachte:“ KIT’s Colloquium Fundamentale Will Focus on Cultural Studies This Winter Semester

On the dates specified, the Colloquium Fundamentale will take place at 6.00 pm. Due to the pandemic, the presentations will be broadcast online via ZAK’s YouTube channel: www.youtube.de/ZAK-Videoclips. A discussion with the audience via chat, mail, and phone will follow.
Being “The Research University in the Helmholtz Association,” KIT creates and imparts knowledge for the society and the environment. It is the objective to make significant contributions to the global challenges in the fields of energy, mobility and information. For this, about 9,300 employees cooperate in a broad range of disciplines in natural sciences, engineering sciences, economics, and the humanities and social sciences. KIT prepares its 24,400 students for responsible tasks in society, industry, and science by offering research-based study programs. Innovation efforts at KIT build a bridge between important scientific findings and their application for the benefit of society, economic prosperity, and the preservation of our natural basis of life. KIT is one of the German universities of excellence.
