With the support of the city of Karlsruhe, five new tennis courts, a shot put area, a multi-purpose open-air sports hall, and an artificial pitch were built on the grounds of the Institute of Sports and Sports Science (IfSS) of Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT). The new outdoor sports facilities replace the old tennis courts and sports grounds transferred to the Karlsruhe Sports Club for future use. The opening ceremony of the new facilities in the presence of Mayor Martin Lenz and the Head of IfSS, Professor Alexander Woll, will take place on Thursday, July 12, 2018, 5 p.m. at IfSS on Campus South of KIT (building 40.40, Engler-Bunte-Ring 15).

For this, about 9,300 employees cooperate in a broad range of disciplines in natural sciences, engineering sciences, economics, and the humanities and social sciences. KIT prepares its 25,500 students for responsible tasks in society, industry, and science by offering research-based study programs. Innovation efforts at KIT build a bridge between important scientific findings and their application for the benefit of society, economic prosperity, and the preservation of our natural basis of life.
