

KIT Presidential Committee Welcomes Election of New General Students Committee

Constituent Meeting of the First Board of Management of the General Students Committee - Successful Cooperation with KIT Bodies Is to Be Continued

The General Students Committee of Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT) has a new board of management. KIT President Holger Hanselka and KIT Vice President Alexander Wanner welcome the election of the new members of the General Students Committee that will be chaired by Vera Schumacher. After the Students Union was introduced in Baden-Württemberg again by the green-red state government in the last year, this General Students Committee is the first of its type with a political mandate at KIT after 36 years now.
