During the event "Uni für Einsteiger" (University for Students-to-be), pupils are invited to inform themselves about studies and vocational training programs at the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT). About 150 events are organized by the institutes and central facilities of the KIT to present the programs and professions that can be learned at KIT. In addition, questions can be asked to KIT staff at information booths in the entrance hall of the Audimax (Straße am Forum 1, building 30.59).
