During the event “Uni für Einsteiger” (University for students-to-be), pupils are invited to inform themselves about studies and vocational training programs at Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (KIT) on Wednesday, November 22, 2017, from 8.30 am. The institutes and central facilities of KIT will present themselves at about 150 events. In addition, questions may be asked to KIT staff at information booths in the entrance hall of the Audimax (Straße am Forum 1, building 30.95).

For this, about 9,300 employees cooperate in a broad range of disciplines in natural sciences, engineering sciences, economics, and the humanities and social sciences. KIT prepares its 26,000 students for responsible tasks in society, industry, and science by offering research-based study programs. Innovation efforts at KIT build a bridge between important scientific findings and their application for the benefit of society, economic prosperity, and the preservation of our natural basis of life.

Since 2010, the KIT has been certified as a family-friendly university.
